REPORT

OF THE

School Board of Greenville.

VILLAGE GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

Teacher, - - Miss Lillian H. Chase.

	1st Term.	2nd Term.	3rd Term.
Number of weeks,	11	11	12
Whole number of scholars,	27	26	32
Average daily attendance,	26	24	30

Studies pursued: Reading, Spelling, Penmanship, Arithmetic, Geography, Grammar, U. S. History, English History, Book-keeping, Algebra, Geometry, Natural History.

Miss Chase is a graduate of our state Normal School and is an experienced teacher. The appearance of this school, particularly during the last part of the winter term, was a credit to teacher and pupils. Miss Chase will remain with us a part or all of next year.

VILLAGE INTERMEDIATE SCHOOL.

Teacher, summer term, Miss Harriet D. Gordon.
 “ fall term, Miss Josephine M. Taft.
 “ winter term, Miss Bertha J. Peabody.

	1st Term.	2nd Term.	3rd Term.
Number of weeks,	11	11	12
Whole number of scholars,	37	32	35
Average daily attendance,	30	27	30

Studies pursued: Reading, Spelling, Penmanship, Arithmetic, Geography.

All these teachers have had previous experience in town and are well known by our citizens. Miss Gordon resigned to enter other occupations giving the school board only two days in which to fill the vacancy. Miss Taft kindly deferred a course in music in order to take the school for the fall term. Miss Peabody's school appeared so well, especially at the close, that she was invited to remain as one of our teachers, but she tendered her resignation.

VILLAGE PRIMARY SCHOOL.

Teacher, - Miss Lucy E. Goodwin.

	1st Term.	2nd Term.	3rd Term.
Number of weeks,	11	11	12
Whole number of scholars,	69	59	50
Average daily attendance,	53	46	34

Studies pursued: Reading, Spelling, Penmanship, Arithmetic.

Miss Goodwin has been in charge of this school too long to need any commendation in a school report. The following remarks were found under the winter term record in her register: "mumps and other diseases have caused the average daily attendance to fall lower than usual this term. Some who fully meant to have their names on the roll of perfect attendance, on that account have failed." Miss Goodwin will remain in this school room for an indefinite time.

SOUTH SCHOOL.

Teacher, - Miss Bertha J. Peabody.

	1st Term.	2nd Term.
Number of weeks,	11	12
Whole number of scholars,	14	13
Average daily attendance,	11	10

Studies pursued: Reading, Spelling, Penmanship, Arithmetic, Geography, Grammar, History.

Miss Peabody's work in the south and east schools for six terms has been so satisfactory that she was put into the village intermediate school to fill the winter vacancy.

EAST SCHOOL.

Teacher, - - Miss Kittie Gibbs.

	1st Term.	2nd Term.	3rd Term.
Number of weeks,	10	8	9
Whole number of scholars,	16	17	18
Average daily attendance,	13	12	14

Studies pursued: Reading, Spelling, Penmanship, Arithmetic, Geography, Grammar, History, Physical Geography, Physiology, Book-keeping, Algebra.

Miss Gibbs is a graduate of the Vt. State Normal School and has given a good year's service here. The drill in some of the classes was equal to any in town. The teacher's illness cut the winter term short two weeks. During the year 14 scholars have come from Mason and 7 from Greenville. Mason has paid 60 per cent. of the cost of maintaining the school and Greenville 40 per cent.

The whole number of pupils registered in town during the year is 208, the average number belonging to the schools at any one time is 140 with an average daily attendance of 125.

All of the schools during the year have been in charge of experienced teachers who have been faithful in their work. Some of these teachers will remain with us another year if we can make their pay equal to what they can get in similar schools elsewhere. Other teachers of equal or greater experience can be had to fill vacancies only by making our pay roll fully up to that of our neighbors. We shall very soon have to face the question of increased wages in some or all of our schools or select a grade of teachers to fit the grade of our salaries.

Patrons of our public schools and other citizens ought to visit the school room oftener and observe the work that is being done. Aside from the visits made by the school board and members of their families and visits made by young people, there have been but 76 visits made by citizens of this town in a total of 152 weeks of school with 208 different scholars.

The east school house is in fair repair but may need some new windows before long. The south school house is hardly worth extensive alteration but is in need of a new black board and some minor repairs. The village school house needs a couple of coats of paint, some new black boards and some new flooring in the wood shed. Many of the desk books are worn out and will have to be replaced.

Scholars neither absent nor tardy for one term :

Willie Ames, Charlie Smith, Marion Gilman, Myrtie Heald, Katie Downs, Hattie Robbins, Charlie Cowdrey, James Mullen, Ellery Reed, Clara Livingston, Olive Nault, Edith Benson, Annie Ames, Nettie Furbush, Beatrice Taft, Winifred Taft, Belle Beaton, Grovie Stickney, Aleck Camers, Zeferine Caouette, Lena Greenwood, Albina Greenwood, Rosa Leclerc, Leida Leclerc, Mamie Munsey, Charlie Douglass, Ella Hill, Annie Goddard, George Robbins, Clifford Sanborn, Frank Doonan, George Doonan, Annie Doonan, Elmer Russell, Ella Russell, Ernest Williams.

Scholars neither absent nor tardy for two terms :

Willie Haskell, Nettie Lynch, Thomas Mullen, Archie Nutting, Cora Stone, Ethel Stickney, George Cowdrey, Henry Chase, Adrian Hall.

Scholars neither absent nor tardy for three terms :

Lillie Ames, Irving Hodgman.

Josie Conley has been neither absent nor tardy for six years. Charles Benson, Joseph Caouette, Dennis Collins and Lawrence Collins were absent examination day at the end of the winter term.

We recommend that the town raise $1,200 for the ensuing year.
